CHECK-IN

Upon arrival, Guests are required to present a valid identity document for legal registration. Please check that registration is correct and corresponds to the type of equipment and number of people. The Management reserves the right, at its own undisputable judgement, not to accept undesired people or larger numbers of people than it is able to accommodate.

The equipment must be located in the delimited spaces. Cars must always be parked within the limits of the pitches. On request, and when considered possible by the Management, and for a period restricted to a few days, the installation may be allowed on the pitch of a second camping means (small-size Canadian type
